

Outsourced Treasury

- Centralis Group and Coprocess partner together to provide a complete netting solution for our common clients. Centralis Group is a market-leading outsourced corporate services provider. Centralis specialise in providing a wide range of corporate, treasury, debt administration and infrastructural support to multinational organisations, private equity houses, international fund structures, real estate firms and private individuals. With a team of over 90 highly-driven specialists, Centralis specialise in providing a comprehensive range of tailored services to support all of our clients treasury needs. Headquartered in Luxembourg, the group has offices in, Ireland, The Netherlands, Switzerland (Geneva, Lucerne, Neuchâtel, Schaffhausen, Zug, Zurich), Hungary, Romania, the Cayman Islands, France and the USA.

- FTI Treasury and Coprocess partner together to provide a full turnkey outsourced netting solution. FTI Treasury is an international provider of treasury management, systems, consultancy and training with a proven track record of expert treasury services for over 25 years. In this role, FTI undertakes treasury processes for multinational corporations for any or all components of front, back and middle office, or performing specific treasury activities. The combination of the FTI hallmarks of real practical treasury expertise, customised solutions & a commitment to add value complement Coprocess's advanced netting technology and our joint philosophy of trusted relationships that go the extra mile for our clients.

- TMSA is a Neuchâtel based Treasuring outsourcing company. As part of their service they offer an outsourced netting using the latest Coprocess Netting solution for those companies who prefer to outsource the running and administration of the netting.